BLIND STUDENT IS TOPS—Dan Dyer Jr., 19, blind since birth, will graduate with top honors tonight from Cambridge School of Broadcasting. He is a regular on school's closed circuit radio station.

Blind Broadcasting Grad Gets Top Billing Tonight

Dan Dyer Jr., top student at the Cambridge School of Broadcasting, is a young man with many talents and one big handicap.

Besides being a first class student, he plays clarinet, saxophone, and trumpet, types 45 words a minute and runs a disc jockey show.

Dan, 19, will get top billing at tonight's graduation exercises in New England Life Hall. He'll step up smartly to receive his diploma, and only the cane will indicate his handicap. He has been blind since birth.

He has earned the title "top student" in spite of having much of his work read to him by there volunteer readers from Catholic Guild for the Blind.

In addition he has found time to do volunteer work at radio station WILD, and to play an active part in the school's closed circuit radio station.

Dyer's home town is Manassas, Va. He was class president in high school and an enthusiastic radio ham, call sign W4UKT. He spent three years, from 1950 through 1952, at Perkins School for the Blind, Watertown.

School president Milton Grahm will present diplomas to 57 students, and Robert E. Slaughter, senior vice president of the McGraw Hill Book Co., New York, will deliver the commencement address.

Citations will go to take following: WNAC-TV; Medill Bair, superintendent of Lexington school system; Dr. Emil Hartl, director of Hayden Goodwill Home for Boys; New England Merchants National Bank, and Jim Jensen, WBZ-TV news reporter.

Biggest Cambridge School Class-167-Is Graduated

The largest class in the history of Cambridge School, Boston—167 students—was graduated last night at New England Life Hall.

Pres. Milton Gramh presented diplomas and Robert E. Slaughter, senior vice president of McGraw-Hill Book Co., was commencement speaker.

Citations of merit were presented to six prominent educators, businessmen and television personalities. Receiving citations were the New England Merchants National Bank, WNAC-TV, Dr. Emil M. Hartl, director of the Hayden Goodwill Inn for Boys; Jim Jensen, WBZ-TV news reporter; Medill Bair, superintendent of schools in Lexington, and Robert E. Slaughter.
