The life of a college student is not centered around books, teachers, and classrooms alone. It involves many other things. At Graham Junior College, most of these "other things" are run and co-ordinated by the Student Personnel Services Department.

The Crier once cited it as one of the best run administrative departments in the school. When looking to thank or reward the person responsible for this efficiency, one would naturally look to the leader of this group.

As students, we cannot offer too much in the way of rewards; and trite thank-yous never seem to be enough.

However, there is one power given to every class, which enables them to single out a person whom they feel deserves to receive the dedication of their yearbook.

In light of this, we, the class of 1969, look to you, Dean Albert R. Williams and thank you for your contributions over the last ten years.

Although you will not return in September to guide the incoming freshmen, you will leave the college in body only, for your work and lasting impressions will be imbedded in its walls forever.

To you, the 1969 Lion is dedicated.

Dean William Baxter

Dean Marion Emslie

The members of the Yearbook staff, however, would not feel justified, without citing two other members of the administration, who are also leaving in June.

Dean Marion Emslie and Dean William Baxter will not walk out the doors of Graham Junior College without recognition for their meritorious contributions to the college.

The class of 1969 would like to express their thanks and wishes of good luck to both of you on all your endeavors in the future.

Foreword

The images of people, places and things

The images are brilliant, sharp . . . standing out in the enveloping haze of the experience that is college life.

They are poignant details etched in color on a chalk-dusted slate of memory.

Images. Trivialities of sight, sound, and feeling grow and become significant, heavy with meaning, a small moment during our collegiate years that, somehow, will come to stand out and symbolize the while. They will linger.

Experiences merge. A single all-night cram session will be forgotten because there were so many of them.

Dawns characterized by burning eyes and smoke-parched throats blend indistinguishably into one.

...racing second plucked out of
...e rush may have become
...zen. The way her hair looked,
...aught by the wind.

Images. A poem read for you by a sorority sister. Frothy beers lifted in cheer.

For each, the images are different and special. You remember them clearly. You even know how the sky looked.

Images. They can't be recaptured for each according to his own special lights. But your LION is dedicated to those flashing scenes. The images of Gram Junior College, 1969.

Administration

TO THE CLASS OF '69 . . .

There will never be another class like the class of '69!

You are the pioneers, the leaders, first to earn, first to receive, the first Associate Degrees your college was authorized to award.

In the opinion of the Faculty, the Administration, the Trustees, and the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education, you are the first class qualified to receive this degree.

As you have been first in so many categories here, you will surely be the first to distinguish yourselves in the years ahead. Your college looks forward to your leadership in the community, in business and the professions.

Congratulations.

The Business Club

The Business Club was formed in September of 1968, and is open to all Business Administration students with an average of 2.8 or more. The purpose of this organization is to assist in developing interest in various business aspects among students through lectures and panel discussions with businessmen and plant visitations.

Any business Administration student who has an average below 2.8 can appeal to the executive board for membership.

Our Advisors are Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Flynn, both from the accounting department.

Commuters Club

The purpose and aim of the Commuters Club was to get the student closer to the school by providing the opportunity of participation in intramural sports, planning dances, and other activities. The members of the Commuters Club did not feel left out in college affairs because they took an active part in many functions at the school.

Freshman Orientation Committee

The Freshmen Orientation Week Committee consists of a group of a dozen or more incoming freshmen, chosen by the administration on the basis of their past academic qualities and previous involvement in high school activities.

The committee, which was born only this year, coordinated their efforts with the Student Leaders to welcome some 1,000 incoming freshmen. Their efforts ranged from a personal welcome, to dance, sight-seeing tours, tickets to plays, local theaters, and baseball games, as well as a field trip to George's Island.

The Freshmen Orientation Week Committee proved to be a vital aid in their efforts to help the new students become better acquainted with the college and their classmates, as well as with the city of Boston.

Massachusetts Intercollegiate Government

INTERCOLLEGIATE GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES

The Massachusetts Intercollegiate Government is an attempt by students to convey to the governing bodies of Massachusetts, legislative proposals which directly affect the young people of the state. Through the legislative processes, the needs of young adults are made known to the people who can act upon them, the House and Senate of Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Intercollegiate Government is composed of representatives of the various colleges and junior colleges throughout the state. These students become the House and Senate and pass bills which are then reviewed by the duly elected Legislature.

House Councils

LEAVITT HOUSE COUNCIL

Left to Right: Conrad Gonther—Secretary of House Council, Wayne Bovi—President, Robert Pantano—Vice President, James Pepe, Dave Card, Bill Boutwell, Peter Ewald.

The three House Councils are those bodies governing for the dormitory students. It is student elected and student run. Besides taking care of those students who infringe upon the rules, they also sponsor many social activities and lectures for the benefit of all students.

Inter-Fraternity Sorority Council

The Inter-Fraternity Sorority Council is that ruling body which governs the "Greek World" at G.J.C. There are two representatives from each fraternity and sorority who have a vote in I.F.S.C. matters, but meetings are open to all fraternal members. This organization has done much in its short life span to help the brothers and sisters of the "Greek World" become united.

Linne Parker, Sharon Ruhl, Linda Deline, Marlene Fantasia—Chairman, Janet Cherry—Secretary, Toni Almeida, Dean M. Emslie, Rick Myers, Jerry Elie, Douglas Calo, Ralph Jacobs, Joseph Grandieri, Dean Mc Crensky.

Epsilon Tau Sigma

Epsilon Tau Sigma is a social and service sorority. The members believe in their motto "Endeavor to Serve" and have demonstrated this through collecting for UNICEF, caroling at a home for the aged, and many other projects. The sisters of Epsilon Tau Sigma also enjoy many other activities. A trip to Washington D.C. during the Cherry Blossom Festival was the highlight of their social year.

Exclusive Society of Editors

The Lion

The yearbook of the class of 1969 is as diversified as the class itself. The staff attempted to show students as they really are, rather than in posed pictures. Every aspect of our lives at G.J.C. is pointed out in this publication. We felt the "LION" is something that will help you remember your years at Graham and we hope that through our efforts we have accomplished this for you.

The Crier

The Crier is the official school newspaper effectively run and coordinated by the student staff. The 1968-1969 year was a year of firsts for the Crier, not only was newsprint used; it was the first time that Graham Junior College students were able to read a completely uncensored publication, The Crier.

Student Council

The functions of the Student Council, which is elected by the student body, are highly diversified, as this organization seeks to coordinate college activities which will meet the demands of the students.

It should be stated that a Student Council can only govern the students' wishes in an effective manner when they receive the full support of the student body.

Soul Time Review

There are a number of reasons for the Soul Time Review Show. Some of their purposes were: to promote goodwill among students, to show the talents and abilities of the students at Graham Junior College, to increase the students school spirit, and to show that the students are capable of planning and coordinating an entire show on their own.

The shows were a huge success, also proving that students can work together.

Student Leader Organization

The 1968-1969 Student Leader Organization has grown in number, spirit, and purpose. During the second year since its conception, it has become an increasingly vital part of Graham Junior College, aiding students, faculty and administration alike. From Orientation Week through graduation, the S.L.O. has indeed proved itself worthy of its title. The members are intelligent, creative, industrious and personable students who have worked to improve the institution that fostered them. Under the guiding hands of President Graham, Dean Emslie, Dean Williams and Dean McCrensky, The Student Leader Organization will continue to respond to the needs of Graham Junior College in future years.

Tennis Club

Weight Lifting Club

WCSB Radio and Television

The motto of Graham Junior College, "Learn by Doing," has again been demonstrated by the student body who has endeavored themselves extensively in the field of communication. WCSB Radio and Television is managed, produced, directed, and presented by the students. WCSB presents a variety of programs, from news and documentaries to quiz shows and comedies. The highlight of this year's programming was the detailed all-night coverage of the presidential election.
